In the Department of Designing.

Messrs. McHugh invite the patronage of those who wish their own ideas of decoration and furnishing put into visible and practicable shape by competent designers, and solicit orders for the execution of special work requiring correct taste and exact workmanship.

Messrs. McHugh undertake the construction of ornamental woodwork and characteristic furniture, the decorative treatment of walls and ceilings, works in glass and metal, and the selection of appropriate hangings and floor coverings for single rooms or entire houses.

Decorative schemes and their mechanical details are supervised by Mr. McHugh.
